

PROPHETIC WORDS FROM 2022 PENTECOST VIGIL CHRIST THE KING CATHOLIC CHURCH - JUNE 4, 2022

Begins at 2 hrs 16 minutes 26 seconds on You Tube Video of Mass

1st Prophecy: Sean Breeden

It was months ago on Ash Wednesday, I had an image and I've been waiting for the Lord to tell me when to share it, when to release it. And I felt He said to release it on Pentecost. And the image was this: There was a church filled with people and they were all wearing old rusty armor, old rusty swords in their hands and a downcast look in their eye. And then I saw a sandstorm come through and no one could see anything and there was confusion and there was darkness and it was a little bit painful. And then I saw the dust, the sand settle and this armor that had been rusty was polished and shiny and new. The swords were ready for battle and instead of a downcast look there was a fire, there was a fire in every person's eyes ready without fear to run joyfully into whatever battle the Lord might call them to.

I asked the Lord for an interpretation and He said that after a season of purification I am preparing you for great difficulties on the horizons. But where the challenges are great, my grace is greater, my love is greater, my power is greater. Therefore, do not fear. For where you see problems I see opportunities to show my glory and to bring breakthrough to situations that seem insurmountable. The water is deep. The dangers are real but a time is coming when all generations will take their place. My young people will bring their joy and their passion. My long suffering servants will bring their wisdom and return again to their first love. For when all my people come together in unity to fight the battle, you will see tangible progress in pushing back the powers of darkness as my glorious light radiates throughout the earth and all shall drink freely from the wellspring of My everlasting hope and glory. Amen.

2nd Prophecy: Janet Hamilton

I call you to prayer. Immerse yourselves in prayer as never before. Hear from me by keeping silence. Watch for me in the night. Pray before your meetings. Pray during trials. Pray before you work, before you eat, before you decide, before you act, and before you sleep. Much, much more prayer, penance and atonement is needed. Tribulation is at hand.

3rd Prophecy: Jeannette Barbacane

And I say to you, my people, you are not praying. You are compromised. You have compromised with the world. And I want your hearts back. I want you to place my altar in the center of your hearts. And I will be there. I want the center of your hearts back. People are looking backwards. I am not there. I am in front of you and you must pray. You must fast for what is coming. Souls are at stake. You must have me as your priority. You must look to me before you look to men. Where has fear of men placed me in your life? I am outside your hearts. You fear men. Fear my Father who loves you and gave Me for your salvation. I am ready and willing to bless you. To go with you. To heal you. To hear your every prayer, when you turn to Me with your whole heart, your whole mind, all your strength. I have sent trials for you to turn to me and you've turned to others. Compromised. My people have compromised. And I will not have it. Come to Me. I will listen to you. I will heal you. I will bless you. I will lead you. I need you. Says the Lord.

4th Prophecy: Carrie Zahm

Now is the acceptable time! Arise, my people! Awake from your slumber! I am calling you each by name! Know me. Though the tempest rages do not be distracted; do not be disturbed by the winds that blow. Do not let the storms turn your gaze from me. Keep your eyes firmly fixed on the hope that is yours. Draw near to me; draw near to me in the morning; draw near to me at midday; draw near to me as the night falls; draw nearer to me than ever before. I alone am your refuge! Know me I will fill you; I will equip you. I am raising an army. You will be my people. Joy and peace shall be your covering. The old has passed and the new is here and now. I will be your strength. Listen for my voice. Know me. I have more for you; there is more—so much more. Do not say, “I have seen!” You have not seen all that I have for you; do not put limits on my love; do not put limits on my power. You will see miracles in my name! You need only to ask. I will not leave you nor abandon you in your hour of need. My love will be your strength. Call upon the fire of my love; it burns for you.

5th Prophecy: John Kazanjian

As we were praying, I felt like the Lord said that we would see His glory, that all of us would see His glory. Then He led me to Isaiah 40. The first 5 verses:

“Comfort, comfort My people, says your God. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem. Tell her that her sad days are gone, and her sins are pardoned. Yes, the Lord has punished her twice over for all her sins. Listen, it’s the voice of someone shouting: ‘Clear the way through the wilderness for the Lord. Make a straight highway through the wasteland for our God. Fill in the valleys and level the mountains and hills. Straighten the curves and smooth out the rough places.’ Then the glory of the Lord will be revealed. Then all the people will see it together. The Lord has spoken.”

6th Prophecy: Adie DeChavez

“Be not afraid!” That’s such a simple phrase, but it’s so often overlooked. I sense the consistent theme of tribulation coming. I feel like the Lord wants us to hold onto that phrase, “Be not afraid!” When the Apostles received the Holy Spirit, boldness and courage were simple. The Lord is calling us back to that simplicity of just not being afraid, and stepping out in boldness and courage.
